Nansemond, Sept. 20, 1768.

Mr. RIND,

JUSTICE, honour, religion, every thing worthy, every thing sacred, the good of society, the laws of my country, call upon me to make known to the public, the fraud, injustice, and perjury, I have committed and done in a neighbouring county. I saw Negroes worth eighty pounds, sold for twenty; I saw plate, to the value of two hundred, sold for fifty pounds; I saw a new, genteel, fashionable coach, which must at least have cost one hundred and twenty pounds sterling, sold for ten, together with two horses into the bargain; I saw household furniture sold for less than a fourth part of the value. Can this be honest? Can it be just? I verily believe I saw goods to the amount of a thousand pounds, had they been fairly exposed to sale, that sold for not a great deal more than three hundred. Is this doing justice to the creditors, many of whom must, by such, and some other means, go unpaid? Can it be just to take from the creditors and give to the widow, when an estate is not sufficient to pay the demands against it, by many thousands? What can the executors of such an estate think of their oaths? What of their characters? Have they not sworn to fill the estate for as much as it would fetch, and pay the debts, &c. Let the public judge if such proceedings be just; if the executors do not deserve to be stigmatized; if it was the intention of the legislature, that by such unfair sale, such frauds should be committed.

GENOA, July 7.

WE hear from Corsica, that the French hunted their flag on the 24th ult. on the walls of Bastia, as a mark of having taken possession of the place; after which Te Deum was sung, under a discharge of the artillery.

It is coincidently asserted by the political world, that the arrival of his Prussian Majesty on the territories of Holland, will put the balancing hand to some treaties which have been a considerable time in agitation, tending to introduce a new system of politics in the trade, connections, and future grandeur of that Republic, by extending their mercantile influence in several parts of Europe, as well as in Asia, Africa, and America.

We are told that large bodies of French troops are ordered down to the sea coasts, which gives ground for political speculation.

His Excellency Governor Bernard, of New-England, is shortly expected to arrive from America, where the unhappy differences still subsist between him and the House of Assembly of that province.

A letter from Vienna, dated June 22, mentions the following instance of the humanity of the Emperor, viz. that on the Saturday before the above date, his Majesty went with Baron Van Swieten, his Physician, into the different Hospitals of that city, and there made enquiry, whether the sick and orphans had any complaints of the manner in which they are therein treated and supported.

A letter from Paris, dated July 1, informs us, that on opening the body of the late Queen of France, her lungs were almost gone, and two spoonfuls of water were found in her head. Her will was very reasonable, and the compliments she made in it to the King of France, her children, and to her servants, were of a piece with the goodness with which she had always behaved towards them when alive. It is said that she has left her estate in Poland to the Jesuits of that kingdom.

His Majesty, at the pressing instances of the Queen, read them before he rose from table; and it is added, that this lecture would probably produce a change in some of the first points of the government."

By a Gentleman lately arrived from France, we are informed, that there had been, about three weeks ago, an insurrection at Rouen in Normandy, on account of the dearth of provisions, when the mob attacked the Parliament House at that place, on which the military had orders to fire, and it was conjectured, that about six hundred persons were killed or wounded. We are told by letters from Warsaw, that such malice is entertained by certain Gentlemen against the city of Thorn, that they even openly vow vengeance, and threaten to lay it in ashes, because, as they pretend, the plan of all the advantages granted to the Protestants in the late Dyet, was formed in that city. They are taking there all the precautions against a surprize, and some companies of burghers actually mount guard on the ramparts.

There has certainly been an engagement between the Corsicans and the French, wherein the latter are said to have at least 300 men killed and wounded.

They write from Marseilles, that several frigates of war, and long galleys, are now building in the ports of Trieste and Fiume, for the French service.

We are informed that a Cabinet Council was held last week on the affairs of America, and that all the Members were unanimous for coercive measures.

'Tis said that the reason why a certain General Officer has been deprived of his government in North-America, is, that he did not choose to go over to reside there.

A correspondent informs us, that a detachment of the Ministry were sent last week to consult the oracle at Hayes, about the measures proper to be taken with the North-Americans, at this critical juncture, and that they had received the following oracular answer: "You must pursue vigorous measures—with moderation."

It is rumoured that two Noblemen of distinction are going over to North-America, to enquire personally into the grievances complained of, and on other matters of consequence.

It is said that in future none of the European nations will supply the States of Barbary, with any warlike stores, which will prevent those pirates from making their customary depredations on the Christians.

While some of our political writers insist, that the original migrants to America went thither to preserve their liberty, while others staid at home to fight for it;—the more rational conclude, that each party acted as they thought most conducive to their own advantage.

INTELLIGENCE EXTRAORDINARY.

We hear that the Council have been lately greatly divided on the measures proper to be pursued with respect to America, but that at present they are all agreed in opinion, excepting Lord C—m; and it is further said, that an order is actually signed for two regiments to embark; but from the smallness of this number, and the many resolute spirits on the other side, it is hoped that no great violence is intended to be used.

BOSTON, September 12.

Extract of a letter from the west of England, in reply to a letter from a true Friend to Civil and Religious Liberty here, which enclosed the FARMER'S Letters, as best expressive of his own sentiments.

"My thoughts concerning the conduct of G. B. towards her colonies are much as yours, and have long been so; and such are the sentiments of most I have conversed with."

By this extract, which is from a Gentleman of large trade and acquaintance, and a person of undoubted veracity, you may observe that the measures of G. B. towards her colonies are merely ministerial, and that the people of G. B. in general condemn the present measures as much as we do.

By Gentlemen, passengers in the same vessel, the above is confirmed as to other parts of G. B. besides the west.

There was great talk in England of a war with France, on account of several very large fleets in France, and their taking part with the Genoese against Corsica.

We hear from Salem, that a person there having given information of a vessel that arrived there with molasses, the populace were so enraged, that they stripped him, then wrapped him in a tarred sheet, and rolled him in feathers; having done this, they carried him down the streets in a cart, and then banished him the town for 6 weeks.

Mr. Rogers, a native of Ireland, and a trader from Michillimackinac, and Mr. Honbough, a Dutch Man, and formerly an officer in the service of the southern Governments, were lately murdered and robbed of all their goods, by the Poutawatamies Indians, at the south west end of Lake Michigan, a nation inveterate against the English, and much attached to the French, several of whom reside among these Indians, and it is thought excited them to perpetrate the above mentioned murders.

Mr. James Hill Clarke, also an Indian Trader at Myamie river, at the west end of Lake Erie, having some dispute with his interpreter, John Myers, a Frenchman, Myers shot him through the head with his musket, and after took shelter among the Poutawatamies.—Captain Turnbull, commandant at Detroit, sent an Indian whom he could depend on, to engage them to deliver up the murderer; but it was much doubted whether he would succeed.

It is confidently reported that the 14th and 29th regiments are ordered up here from Halifax—and that a ship of above 300 tons, that sailed last Thursday (said to be bound to Casco-Bay, to load with masts) has been privately hired as a transport to bring up the troops from Halifax.

The freeholders and other inhabitants of this town are to meet this day at 9 o'clock, A. M. at Faneuil-hall, to take into consideration what measures are most proper to be adopted under the present critical aspect of the times, agreeable to a petition of a number of the inhabitants for that purpose.

Captain Richards says, that he touched at St. Eustatia in his way home, and that on the 23d of August they had for heavy a gale at that island, that all the vessels in the road put to sea, but got in again without receiving any damage, as the wind soon abated.

Friday last the brig Pompey, Capt. Smith, arrived here from Hall, in 3 weeks; the 21st ult. in lat. 43, 18, long. 43, 17, he spoke with Capt. Martin, from Virginia to Liverpool, 20 days out; the 29th, in lat. 41, 25, long. 54, 4, with a ship from Virginia for Liverpool also.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.

Extract of a letter from London, May 6.

"Yesterday there was a report of an insurrection in America, which caused stocks to fall 1 and a half per cent. I look on it only as a stockjobber's artifice to fall stocks, that he may buy in.—The pieces printed in your city, signed a FARMER, do great honour to the writer.—They have had great effect with every thinking person here, and Mr. De B—t tells me, that the Board of Trade feels the weight of them more than anything that has been wrote on that subject, and he says, they have staggered them very much; they are ascribed to Mr. D— by every body that knows him. I am much chagrined that I have it not in my power to say with certainty who is the author, as the subject is so glorious, and the writer deserves to himself so much credit."

Extract of a letter from London, June 26.

"The Parliament is prorogued till winter, so there will be little news of any kind from this place for some time to come. I am very sorry the colonies have still so much ground to complain of the late glasts act, &c. I cannot think what we are about here, to make laws which cannot be carried into execution. But I hope next year we shall fall upon some method of putting a final end to all these heart-burnings and misunderstandings. We cannot long go on in the track we have been following for some years past, and must necessarily turn over a new leaf. I wish to God it may be to the honour of this nation, and for the good of all British subjects every where."

Capt. Bolton, from St. Christophers, on the 9th instant, in lat. 34, 16, long. 71, 25, spoke a brig from Virginia to London, 8 days out; and on the 11th, in lat. 37, 13, long. 73, he spoke a schooner, Capt. Wife, from Virginia for Antigua, out 4 days; all well.

By Capt. Gibbon from Malaga, we learn, that on the 17th of July, Capt. Devereux, in a brig from New-York, arrived there, who 5 days before, had been boarded by an Algerine cruiser, when the Turk, after examining his papers, dismissed him with much complaisance, not meddling with any thing on board, but offered him any assistance in his power; that a Turkish half galley was lying in the Mole when he arrived, where he remained for some days afterwards, and suddenly disappeared, as it was thought in search of booty.

On Saturday last died here Mr. PETER HUNT, aged one hundred and one.

On Wednesday night, the 14th instant, Mr. John Russell, of this city, was stopped by two men on the highway, between Derby and Chester, who robbed him of one hundred and twenty-nine pounds.

RICHMOND county, October 1, 1768.

To be SOLD for THREE POUNDS per hundred acres and upwards,

UPWARDS of 13,000 acres of LAND, in one tract, lying in Halifax and Pittsylvania counties, in Virginia, on Sandy-Creek, Burch's, and many other creeks, and near to Peytonburg town. The land in general is high, but very good, for it is the choice of 20,000 acres, and in many parts there is extraordinary good low grounds. The growth is fine oak of all kinds, large pine for plank or tar, poplar, some walnut, &c. and the waters, and range for flock of all kinds, are equal to any in the colony. The said land lies convenient to court, church, and several fine mills; likewise to Dan and Banister rivers, where numbers of fine fish may be caught at almost all seasons of the year. Messrs. John Donaldson and Theophilus Lacy, or either of them, both of Pittsylvania county, and near the aforesaid land, are properly authorized by me to treat for and pass to any purchaser, an undoubted right by deed (as the said land is patented) to the whole or any part of the land aforesaid.

THOMAS GLASCOCK.

STORRS & ELLIS.

WILLIAMSBURG, 27th Sept. 1768.

ONCE MORE, and for the LAST TIME, I take this method of calling upon all those who are indebted to the PUBLIC TREASURY, either for arrears of taxes, tobacco duties, or upon any other account whatever, for their several balances. If they are not paid very speedily, the duty of my office, strongly enforced by an express order of the House of Burgesses, will oblige me rigorously to pursue the measures prescribed by law, without respect to persons.

I hope the Inspectors will be more punctual, than usual, in settling their accounts by the time appointed, otherwise it will not be in my power to comply with the purposes of the fund arising from the inspection of tobacco. The several officers indebted for recruiting money are desired to settle their accounts immediately, or their bonds will be put in suit.

As it is impossible for me to support the credit of the TREASURY in the manner I could wish, and ought to do, unless the several duties appropriated to the discharge of the public debt, are more regularly paid and accounted for than they have been for some time past, I must also recommend this matter to the serious attention of all concerned in those branches of the revenue, either as importers or collectors.

RO: C. NICHOLAS,
Treasurer.

Cumberland, Sept. 29, 1768.

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro man named HARRY, who is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, a very sensible artful fellow, that speaks quick and plain, understands a little of the carpenter's business, is a good waterman, and has been much used to work on-board of ships, at Cumberland town, in the time he belonged to Mr. Richard Littlepage. He has a wife in the neighbourhood of the said town, where I have good reason to believe he has resorted ever since he has been run away, and might be easily apprehended. If he leaves those parts, I am apprehensive he will endeavour to make his escape by water, therefore desire all persons, particularly masters of vessels, not to harbour or entertain the said Negro.

Also about the same time, a young Negro man named TOM, about 6 feet high, has a roguish look, and has lost part of one of his ears. He has been seen in Nansemond and Norfolk counties, and is supposed to be about the Difnal Swamp. Whoever conveys the said runaways to me, shall have 5 l. reward for each.

JOHN MAYO.

STORRS & ELLIS.

STAFFORD County, August 20, 1768.

RAN away last April, from one of the subscriber's quarters in Loudoun, (where he had been a short time sawing) a Mulatto slave belonging to Samuel Selden, jun. named Peter Deadfoot, though it is supposed he has changed his name, as he the day before attempted to pass for a freeman, and had got as far as Noland's ferry, on his way to Philadelphia, by a forged pass, in which he was called William Swann. He is a tall, slim, clean limbed, active, genteel, handsome fellow, with broad shoulders; about 22 years of age, a dark Mulatto, with a nose rather flat than otherwise, very sensible, and smooth tongued; but is apt to speak quick, swear, and with dreadful curses upon himself, in defence of his innocence, if taxed with a fault, even when guilty; which may be easily discovered, by any person's taxing him with being run away. He is an indifferent shoemaker, a good butcher, ploughman, and carter; an excellent fawyer, and waterman, understands breaking oxen well, and is one of the best scythemen, either with or without a cradle, in America; in short, he is so ingenious a fellow, that he can turn his hand to any thing; he has a great share of pride, though he is very obliging, is extremely fond of drefs; and though his holiday clothes were taken from him, when he first attempted to get off, yet, as he has probably passed for a freeman, I make no doubt he has supplied himself with others, as such a fellow would readily get employment; it has been reported that he was seen on board a vessel in York river, near York town; but for my own part, I suspect that he is either in Prince William county, Charles county in Maryland (in both which places he has relations) or in the neighbourhood of Winchester. Whoever apprehends the said slave, and conveys him to me in Stafford county, shall receive, if taken within ten miles of my house, Five Pounds; if above fifty miles, Ten Pounds; and if above one hundred miles, Twenty Pounds reward, besides what the law allows.

THOMSON MASON.

TAKEN up in King William county, a small bay horse, about 4 feet 3 or 4 inches high, branded on the near buttock thus H, appears to be about 6 years old. Posted, and appraised to 4l. 10s.

THOMAS BUTLER.

TAKEN up in Fairfax county, a grey fleabitten gelding, about 13 hands and one inch high, branded on the near shoulder and thigh thus W. It was said when he came into the neighbourhood he had a bell on, without a clapper, tied with a stirrup leather twice about his neck; he is shod before and trots. Posted, and appraised to 6l.

HENRY MOORE.

King's creek, York county, Sept. 14, 1768.

RUN away from the subscriber, about three months ago, a tall black Negro fellow named GABY, about 40 years of age, round shoulder'd, bends in one of his knees (in which I have forgot) is very subject to sore legs, has a very long foot; and had on when he left me, the usual winter cloathing of corn field Negroes; he has a wife at Mr. Robert Nicholson's in Williamsburg, where (in all probability) he may be secreted by her. He is outlawed, and a reward of TEN POUNDS will be given for his head, or Twenty Shillings if safely delivered to

JAMES BURWELL.

Richmond county, July 14.

RUN away about the 20th of May last, an East-India Indian, named Thomas Greenwick; he is a well made fellow, about 5 feet 4 inches high, wears his own hair, which is long and black, has a thin visage, everyly look, and a remarkable set of fine white teeth. A reward of 40s. will be paid the person who delivers him to the subscriber, besides what the law allows.

WILLIAM COLSTON.

TO BE SOLD,

The following tracts of LAND, viz. A TRACT of LAND containing 600 acres or thereabouts, lying in St. Paul's parish, Stafford county, on the river Potomack; thirty acres of said land is meadow ground, equal in quality to any in this colony, and lately put in the best order for grafs; likewise a quantity of salt marsh; the other part of the land produces great crops of corn and tobacco, and lies very convenient to church and several good mills; there is on the premises a good new dwelling-house with six rooms below, and three above, all with fire places, with every convenient out house; situated on a hill, that opens a most agreeable prospect for some miles up and down the river. Likewise a valuable tract of land in Cople parish, Westmoreland county, containing four hundred and twenty acres, as good as any land in the Northern Neck, lying perfectly level through the whole, with immensity of timber, fit for building ships, or otherwise, and convenient to Potomack river, where a quantity of fine fish and oysters may be had with little trouble. It lies within a few miles of two churches, and several good mills. The payment shall be made easy to the purchaser, by

SAMUEL WASHINGTON

THE subscriber can be well recommended as capable of managing any Gentleman's business as a steward, but being engaged as manager of Col. Moore's forge, he cannot without danger of injury to that concern, go in search of employment for another year. If any Gentleman therefore is in want of such a steward, and will favour him with a line to be sent to the said forge, near Todd's Bridge, in King and Queen, he will immediately wait on them.
